Ashen Stars An Exile Novella

Ashen Stars is the novella preceding the events that occur in Exile (which only recently released). Honestly, you could read these in either order and be okay. The prequel will help you understand the main character better, but reading them in the reverse order won't hinder you either (it's how I did it, and I had no trouble understanding what was happening in either plotline).

A novella, is by its definition, too short to really develop characters and Glynn's new 'exile universe'. That said, Ashen Stars was an entertaining read and what it lacked in character development, was more than made up in the tense action as Captain Isaac Gallant prepared to do battle against three warships.
