We all know infectious diseases, and we avoid their carriers, and there are ways to prevent them, frustration and failure are two contagious diseases, which do not differ from the rest of the diseases, because the frustrated and the failed, do not see in this world a beautiful thing, and see pessimism, defeat, and failure, all written between his eyes.Failure is the first step towards success, not the end of the road. Rather, it is always the beginning. I know that failure is a blessing, and if you do not pass by it, you cannot succeed and discover yourself. When you fail in something, this does not mean the end. If you make it a lesson for the beginning, review your current situation and change the strategies whenever you feel their uselessness. We all go through failure and many of us consider failure a curse. On man, but if failure does not exist, we lose experience and expertise in reaching the goal we want

Insolent and defiant, the Chants de Maldoror, by the self-styled Comte de Lautréamont (1846-70), depicts a sinister and sadistic world of unrestrained savagery and brutality. One of the earliest and most astonishing examples of surrealist writing, it follows the experiences of Maldoror, a master of disguises pursued by the police as the incarnation of evil, as he makes his way through a nightmarish realm of angels and gravediggers, hermaphrodites and prostitutes, lunatics and strange children. Delirious, erotic, blasphemous and grandiose by turns, this hallucinatory novel captured the imagination of artists and writers as diverse as Modigliani, Verlaine, André Gide and André Breton; it was hailed by the twentieth-century Surrealist movement as a formative and revelatory masterpiece.
