Hey, guys. I have a original T-Maxx with the TRX Pro .15. It's been sitting in the garage for a few years now, and I've decided to bring her back to life. She needs a new engine, and I'm wondering what my options are, other than the original .15. I have Al chassis braces and skid plates and I'd rather not toss those investments as required by a longer chassis, so I don't know if that means I ...
